

Environmental Technology Limited

British Telecom - Adastral Park, Ipswich

A £4 million plus package as Principal and Main Contractor for the design-development of hi-tech modular accommodation units, known as Stellar Buildings 1 and 2, consisting of the complete construction from foundation level including the main steel framework, internal and external cladding, sun screens, structural and raised access floors, mechanical and electrical services, planar glazing, and birch veneer faced acoustic ceiling panelling, floor and wall finishes, access lifts, electronically obscured privacy glazing to the conference rooms, and power operated access doors.

Clients:	British Telecom Plc
Architects:	Building Design Partnership
Contractors:	Environmental Technology Limited

Picture Gallery

