

Stansted Airport Development

Product design-development, for a diverse work package totalling approximately £1 million in 1990, which included 99 large Daylight Reflector assemblies, each 7200mm x 7200mm on plan, consisting of irregular triangular panels, custom-punched with a total of more than 24 million holes to give compensated margins complete with cable suspension, over 3000m² of custom-fabricated Geometric Plain and Perforated Ceilings to Duty Free Shops, Bars, Catering and Retail Areas, incorporating lighting, air diffusion, sprinklers, public address and other services, with Entech concealed rotary-locking device fixings, 54 no. Jumbo 'Toblerone' Triangular Direction Signs, variously housing emergency illuminated panels, lighting, and PA speakers, and external triangular coach-stop signs with timetables.

Client:	BAA - Stansted Airport Limited
Architect:	Sir Norman Foster & Partners
Construction Manager:	Laing Management Limited

Picture Gallery

