

Environmental Technology Limited

New Parliamentary Building - Portcullis House

A £0.25 million package for the design-development, manufacture, and site installation, of multi-purpose aerofoil gantries, to provide an integrated support system for audio-visual, public address and television camera equipment, including testing and evaluation of the structural and functional performance of the complete assembly.

Client:	Department of Environment
Architect:	Michael Hopkins
Contractor:	Laing Management

Picture Gallery

